

Who is the author of these books?

Do you recognise any of these stories?

Who is the illustrator?

Do you have a favourite story?

Axel Scheffler and Julia Donaldson

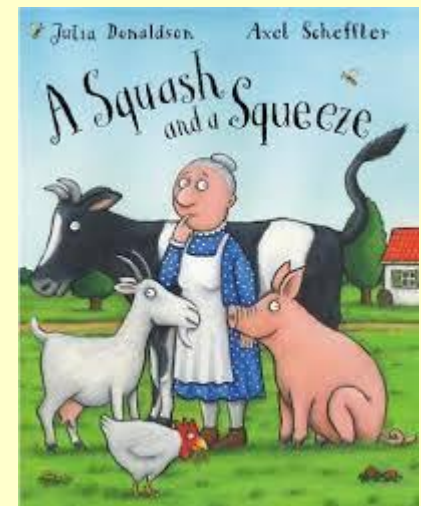

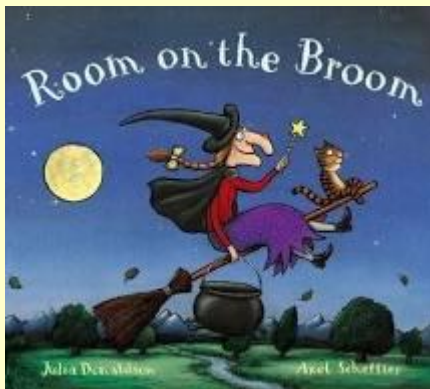

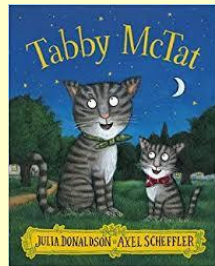

The illustrator is Axel Scheffler and the author is Julia Donaldson.

As well as being very busy writing and drawing pictures for their new books they have been having a bit of fun with some of their favourite characters too!!

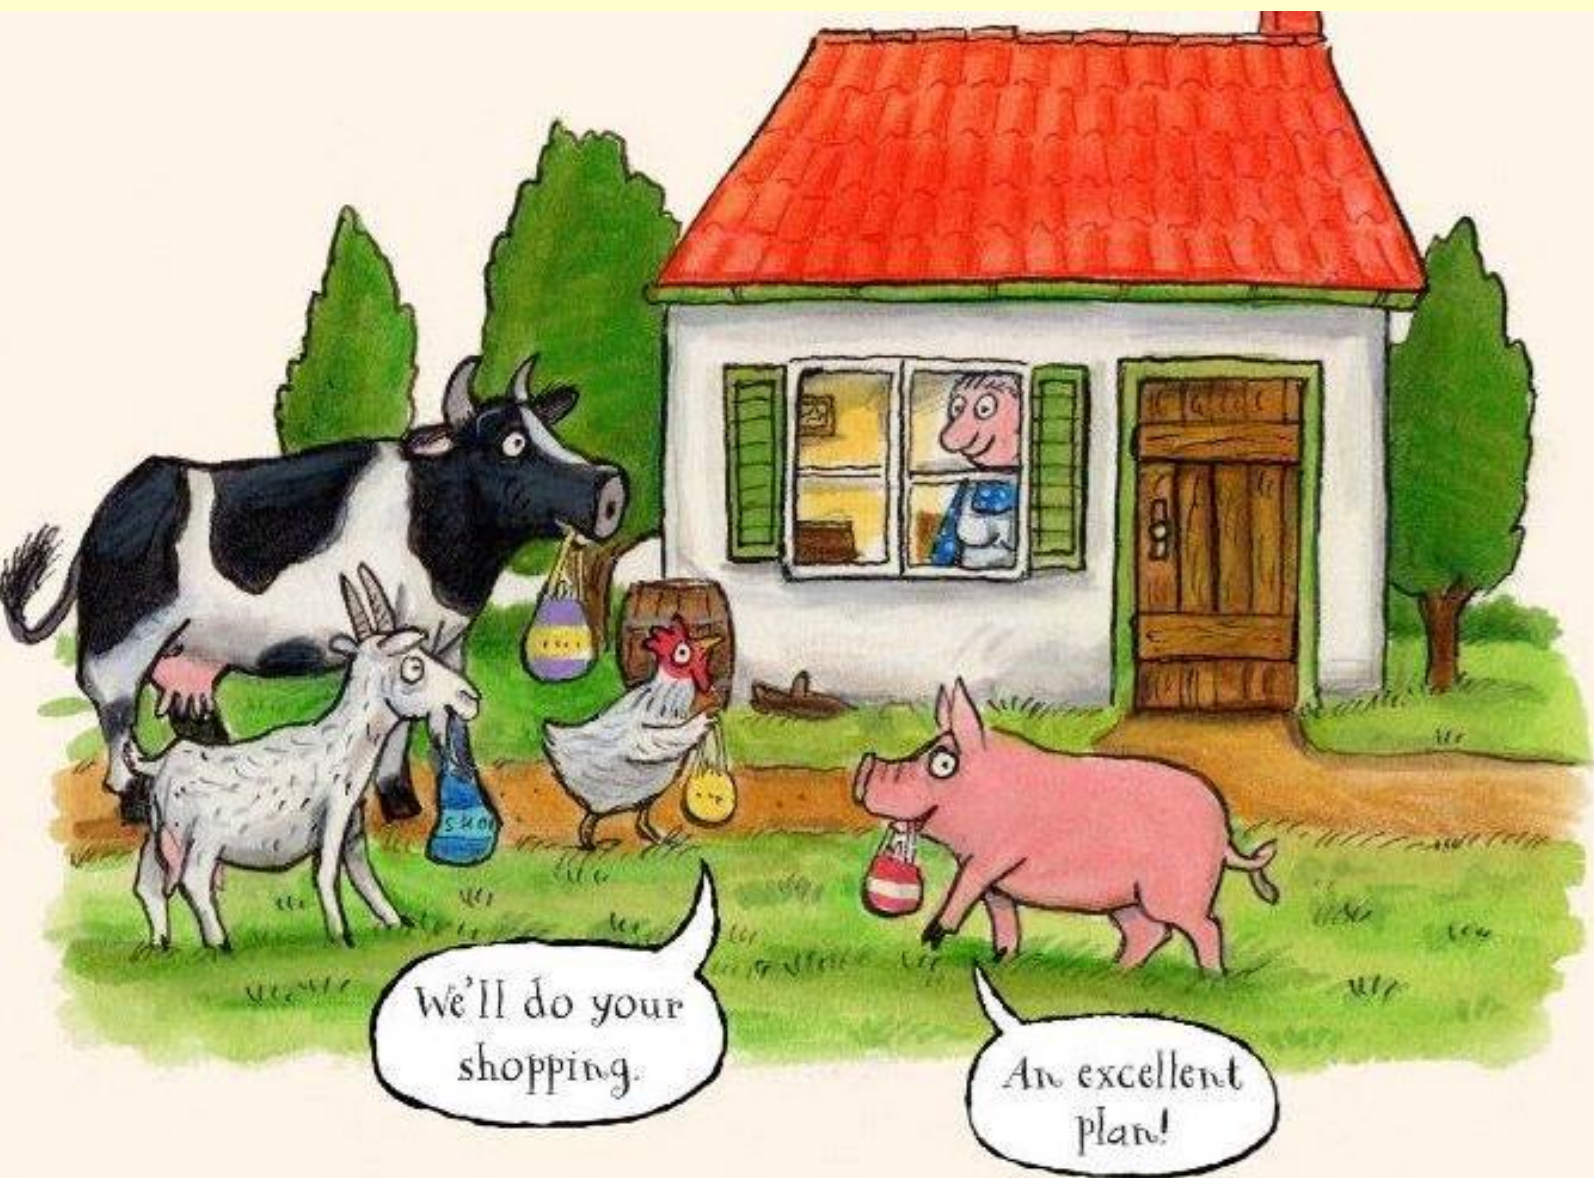

What have the characters in these stories been up to while the schools have been closed?

Charlie Cook has to stay in his house.
He reads to the cat and he reads to the mouse.

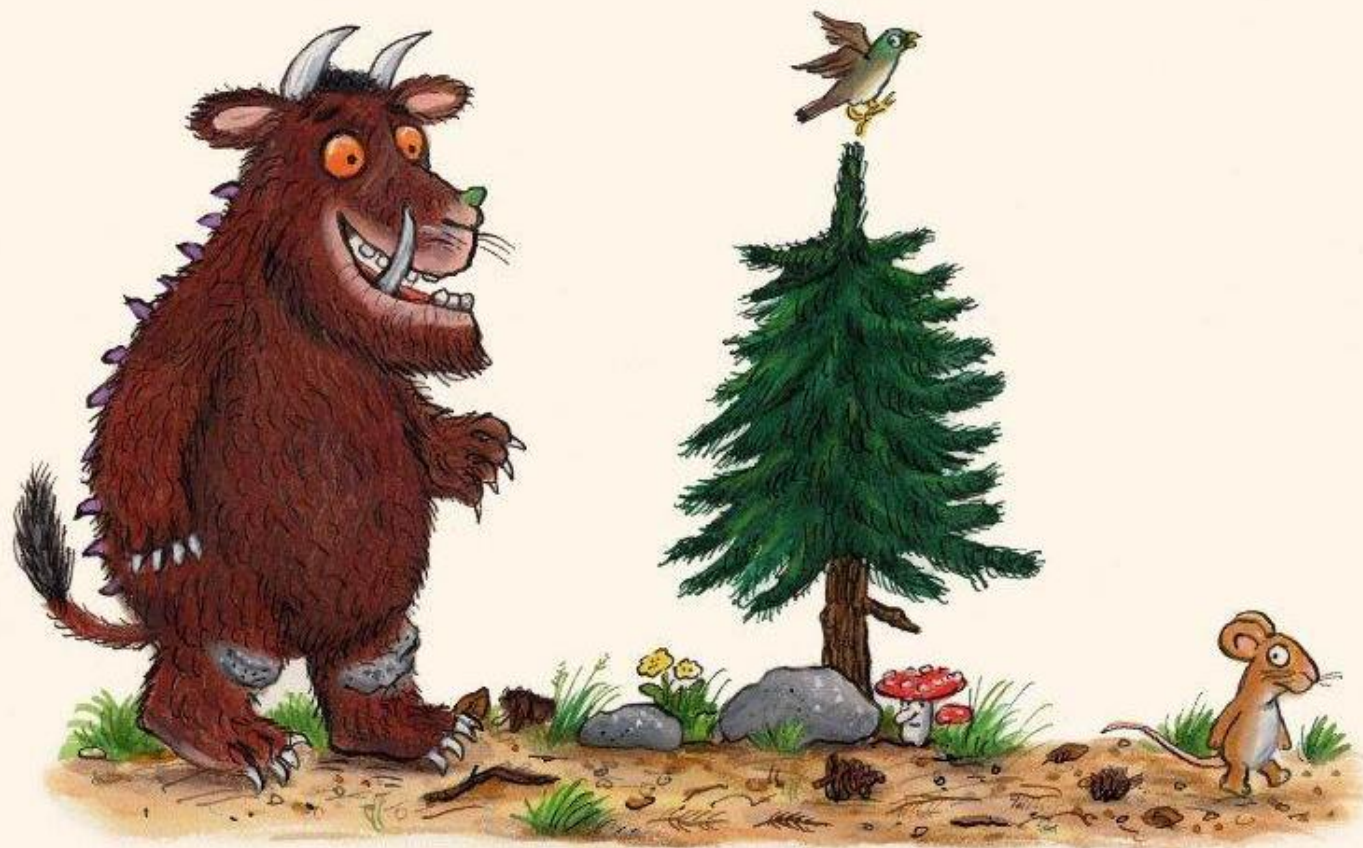

Stick Man and Lady stay home in their tree,
But they're still keeping fit with their Stick Children three.

You'd better be safe, you'd better be smart.
Stay on the broom, but stay well apart.

“All right,” said the Gruffalo, bursting with laughter.

“You go ahead and I’ll follow two metres after.”

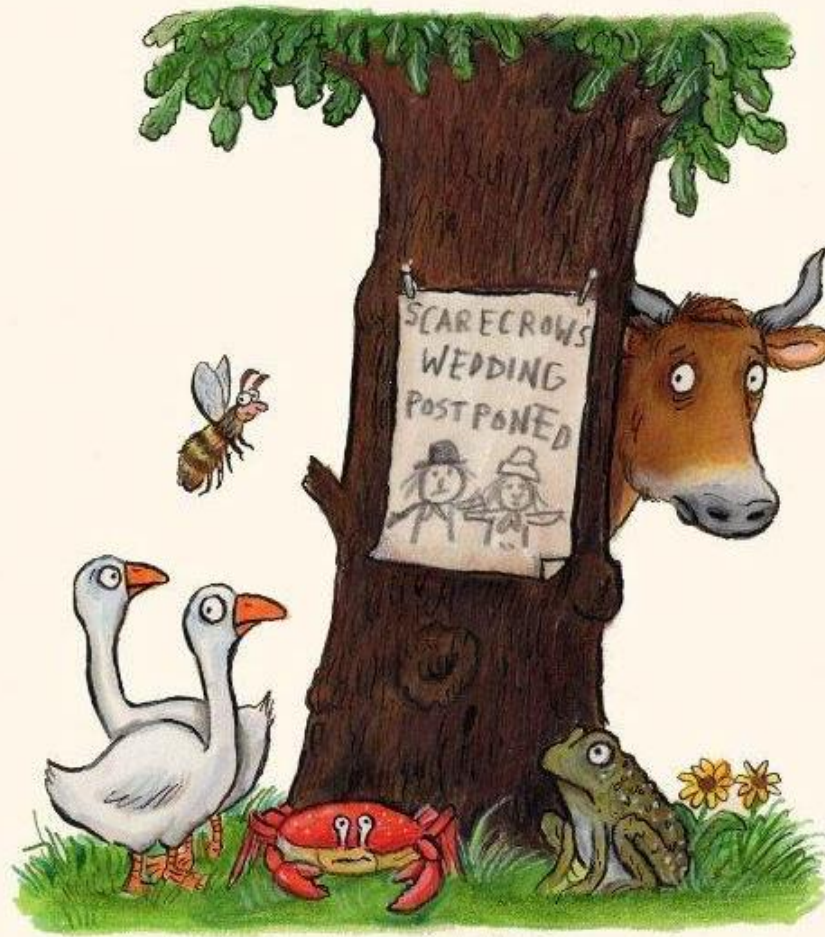

Prunella and Pat are safe in their flat,
Being looked after by Tabby McTat.

The Gruffalos stayed in the Gruffalo cave.
The Gruffalo's Child did her best to behave.

“Give me your soap and your loo rolls
And everything else on the shelf,
For I am the Rat of the Highway
And I’m taking them all for myself.”

The Scarecrows' Wedding can't happen just yet.
When everyone's well, a new date will be set.

Look me up and down,
I'm the cleanest giant in town!

Zog and the Flying Doctors tell the lion with the sneeze,
“Don’t sneeze into your paw – and use a paper hanky, please.”

Granny and Grandpa are all on their own,
But they always cheer up when the grandchildren phone.

I hope you enjoyed looking at these special illustrations and rhymes.

Maybe you can think of a character in a story you enjoy reading and think about how life may be a little bit different for them at the moment. You might like to draw a picture of what the character is doing.
